INDEX DIGEST

A

ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

Administrative Agencies:

Activities of Department of Justice in combating totalitarian propaganda 120–22, 127–33

Record of the Shipbuilding Stabilization Committee as an example of how collective bargaining has been utilized to stabilize production 24–25

Reviewability of licensing regulation 88–91

State Department supervision of foreign agents 113–15

In General:

Tendencies toward decentralization in federal administrative techniques 437–52

Judicial Control:

Reviewability of FCC orders . . 88–91

Procedure:

Procedure in renegotiation of government war contracts . . . 198–203

AGENCY

Duty of trustee's agent to trust estate 207–11

ALIENS

Registration:

State alien registration act held to conflict with national act . . . 40–45

ATTORNEY AND CLIENT

Privileged Communications:

See Evidence: Witnesses: Privilege

B

BANKRUPTCY

Liens:

Secret liens and Section 60a of the Chandler Act 220–27

Preferences:

Assignments of accounts receivable as a transfer under Section 60a of the Chandler Act 224–27

C

CARTELS

Extent of Use of Cartels:

Development of German cartels and patents under Hitler 49–69

CHARITIES

Rights and Liabilities of Charitable Organizations:

Tort liability of charitable corporation 211–16

COMPARATIVE LAW

Duty owed in United States and in England by trustee's agent to trust estate 207–11

CONFLICT OF LAWS

In General:

Comparison of European conflict of laws with that of the United States 471–77

Criticism of Restatement of the Conflict of Laws . . 466–71, 474–75

Methods of legal thought and the conflict of laws 466–77

Jurisdiction of Courts: Divorce:

Application of Williams doctrine in Illinois 499–501

Remedies: Right of Action:

Workmen's compensation and the Jensen doctrine 339–44

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW

Adoption and Amendment of Constitutions:

Experience in amendment of state constitutions in:

Alabama 146–50

Illinois 150–55

Indiana 155–60

Minnesota 160–71

Mississippi 171–76

Study of states having faulty systems of amending their constitutions 142–76

Civil and Political Rights:

Right of a union to bargain collectively 177–92

Freedom of speech and picketing 495–97

Legislative Powers:

Recent constructions of due process and commerce clauses increase legislative powers 27–48

Searches and Seizures:

Compulsory medical examinations of citizens 282–83

CONTRACTS

War contracts 21, 23

CORPORATIONS

Dissolution:
Power of majority stockholders to dissolve a prosperous corporation 77–84

Dividends:
Availability of unrealized appreciation of fixed assets 350–54

Offices and Directors:
Corporate executives' compensation 93–95

Rights and Duties:
Stock purchases by directors during voluntary reorganization . . . 70–77

Reorganization:
Stock purchases by directors during reorganization 70–77

Shareholders' Rights: In General:
Fiduciary relationship in which majority stockholders stand to minority regarding dissolution . . 77–84

COURTS

Powers:
Disbarment of judges in Illinois for careless conduct 354–58

CRIMINAL LAW

In General:
Criminal Appeal Act of 1907 . . . 255
Criminal Lunatics Act of 1884 . . . 255
Disparity between legal and medical approach to mental disease . 252
Fault an outmoded concept in criminology; danger to society the important consideration . . . 256–57
Flaws in relating mental defects to crimes 257–58
Historical development of scientific crime detection 267–72
Relation of mental disease to crime 253–63

Accessories:
American Prison Association—uniform classifications of mental defects 262
Forensic pathology—functions and problems 263–67
The Scientific Crime Detection Laboratory: services and functions 335–38

Defenses:
Amnesia: causes, types, and relation to crime 298–312
Insanity: epilepsy: Nature of and tests for 259–63
See also Evidence

Reforms:
See Evidence

D

DIVORCE

Jurisdiction:
Application of Williams doctrine in Illinois 499–501

E

EVIDENCE

Determination of Admissability:
Rule against opinion evidence in Illinois 104–5

Nature and Scope:
A ministry of justice to make progress in science available to courts and legislatures 323–34
Inadequacy of present sources of information essential to wise lawmaking 324–32
Inadequacy of traditional rules of evidence and legal mechanisms 245–47, 285–97
Tumors, criteria required to prove causation 313–22 occupational tumors . . . 314–18 traumatic tumors 318–22

Opinions:
The hypothetical question 246, 294–96

Best Evidence:
Need for extension of the medical examiner system 264–65

Presumptions:
Rules in McNaghten's Case . 250–57

Witnesses: Competency:
Inadequacy of general practitioners as medical experts 247–50
Tests to determine proper medical testimony 249–50

Witnesses: Privilege:
American Law Institute's proposals regarding physician-client privilege 291–92
American Law Institute's proposals regarding privilege against self-incrimination 287
Effect on scientific evidence . 286–88
Lawyer-client privilege . . . 288–90
Origin of the privilege against bodily examination 287
Physician-client privilege . . . 290–92
"Privileged communication" statutes ill-conceived 245
Relation of physician-client privilege to public health . . . 290–91
Rule against involuntary bodily examination now antiquated . 245–46

Witnesses: Credibility:
The "shopping around" for experts 246–47
See also Trial

H

HISTORY OF LAW
In General:
Constitutional and legal history of England 97–99
Early American law as described in "The Superior Court Diary of William Samuel Johnson" . 95–97
Relation of law to medicine . 243–84

I

INCOME TAXATION
Who Is Subject to Tax:
Recent implications of the Clifford doctrine 488–95
Where income is from trust and settlor retains substantial ownership 488–95

INHERITANCE TAXES
Where Property May Be Taxed:
Multiple state taxation of intangibles 84–87

INTERNATIONAL LAW
Permanent Court of International Justice 478–87
Use of arbitration in the settlement of international disputes . . 478–87

INTERSTATE COMMERCE
Power of Congress:
Increased under recent Supreme Court decisions 27–48
Power of States:
Increased under recent Supreme Court decisions 27–48

J

JUDGES
Duties 505

JUDICIAL NOTICE
Limitations 325–31

JUDICIAL REFORM
Mechanisms to provide impartial testimony 247–50, 293

JURISPRUDENCE
In General:
Confused with legal problems arising from medical practice . . . 279
Nature of a lawsuit 285
Nature of Law:
The legal order 323–25
Schools of Jurisprudence:
The significance of the "Brandeis brief" in the development of "sociological jurisprudence" . . 384–88

JURY
Competency of Jurors:
Need for simplified instructions 252–53
Right to Trial by Jury:
Requirement a barrier to scientific medical findings 248, 252–54, 275–77

L

LABOR LAW
Boycotts:
Application of Sherman Act and Norris-La Guardia Act to secondary boycotts 216–220
Collective Bargaining:
Union peacetime restraints in collective bargaining 177–92
Picketing:
Enjoinability of picketing for closed shop 495–97
Sherman Act:
Application to labor activities in restraint of trade 177–83
Statutes:
Analysis of briefs and arguments of counsel defending constitutionality of labor-welfare legislation 375–416 maximum hour legislation 376–83, 394–96 minimum wage legislation 384, 396–402
legislation regulating methods of wage payment . . . 389–91
legislatjon restricting sale of prison-made goods . . 404–6 unemployment compensation acts 406–8 collective bargaining acts 408–14
Wisconsin Employment Peace Act upheld against claim that it conflicted with Wagner Act . . . 37–40
Arguments of counsel defending constitutionality of workmen's compensation acts 391–94
Strikes:
Wartime no-strike clauses . . . 15–18
Unions:
Enforceability of union agreements 3
Workers' participation in management 20–24

Effect of the war on union agreements 1–26
War production and overtime . . . 7
Training labor for war work . . 10–14
Effect of safety and health on war work 14

LABOR UNIONS
See Labor Law

LAWYERS
Responsibility of the legal profession for certain errors in handling of Detroit race riot 497–99

LEGAL BIOGRAPHY
Mr. Justice Holmes in the light of his environment 417–36

LEGAL EDUCATION
Training in scientific proof . . 280–82
Use of case books in the teaching of torts 359–63

LEGAL HISTORY
See History of Law

LEGISLATION
Analysis of briefs and arguments of counsel defending constitutionality of labor-welfare legislation 375–416
Combating totalitarian propaganda 107–41
Criticism of Renegotiation of Government War Contracts Act . 203–6
Significance of provision for pre-trial conference in Illinois practice act 453–65

LICENSES
Renewal:
Reviewability of FCC orders relating to renewal of licenses to radio stations 88–91

LIENS
Lienholders' Rights:
See Bankruptcy

M

MUNICIPAL CORPORATIONS
Police Power and Regulations:
Training of police 99–100
Powers and Functions:
Administration of municipal legal services 100–102
Property:
Right of municipal corporation to dispose of property acquired by condemnation 91–92

P

PATENTS
Extent of Use of Patent:
Development of German patents and cartels under Hitler . . . 49–69
Picketing:
See Labor Law

POLICE POWER
Interest of Public Safety:
Training of police 99–100

POLITICAL SCIENCE
Essays on Various Aspects of Government in the United States . 103–5

PRIVILEGED COMMUNICATIONS
See Evidence

PROCEDURE
Judicial mediation through pre-trial conference 453–65

PUBLIC OFFICERS
Eligibility to Office:
See Courts

R

REAL PROPERTY
Right of municipal corporation to dispose of property acquired by condemnation 91–92

RESTRAINT OF TRADE
Sherman Act:
Application to labor activities in restraint of trade 177–83
Secondary boycott 216–20

RULE IN SHELLEY'S CASE
Application 344–50

S

SHERMAN ACT
See Labor Law; Restraint of Trade

STATES
Relation to Federal Government:
Developments in the "negative implication" doctrine 27–48
Relation to Other States:
Power of state, where corporation has its seal, to tax transfer of shares, when testator was domiciled in another state 84–87
Study of states having faulty systems of amending their constitutions 142–76

STATUTES
Federal Statutes:
Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938 109–11
Alien Registration Act 133–34
McKellar-Sumners amendments to Foreign Agents Registration Act 115–20
Summary of Renegotiation of Government War Contracts Act 193–97
Voorhis Act for registration of subversive organizations . . . 122–27
Interpretation:
Bankruptcy Act, c. X § 249 . . . 74
Chandler Act § 60a 220–27
Holding Company Act § 17 . . . 73
Municipal sales tax held to burden interstate commerce 42–45
Reviewability under Federal Communications Act of orders issued by the FCC 88–91
Sherman Act and Norris-LaGuardia Act in secondary boycott cases 216–20
State alien registration act held incompatible with federal act . . 40–45
State food and drug statute held to conflict with federal Renovated Butter Act 31–46
Wisconsin Employment Peace Act upheld against claim that it conflicted with Wagner Act . . . 37–40

T

TAXATION
In General:
Survey of federal taxation . . 502–4
Inheritance Taxes:
Constitutionality of state inheritance tax on transfer of corporate shares where corporation had its seat in state taxing and testator had been domiciled elsewhere 84–87
Power to Tax: State:
Multiple state inheritance taxation on the transfer of intangibles . 84–87
Who Is Subject to Tax:
Recent implications of the Clifford doctrine 488–95
Where income is from trust and settlor retains substantial ownership 488–95

TEACHING OF LAW
See Legal Education

TORTS
Defenses:
Liability of a charitable corporation 211–16
See Legal Education

TRADE UNIONS
See Labor Law

TRIAL
Judicial Mediation through Pre-trial Conference 453–65
The Adversary System 247, 249, 252–53, 275–78, 286
See also Evidence

TRUSTS
Powers and Obligations of Trustees:
Duty of trustee's agent to trust estate 207–11

U

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION
Arguments of counsel defending constitutionality of unemployment compensation acts . . 406–8

W

WAR
Effect on Labor:
See Labor
In General:
Effect on union agreements . . . 1–26
Wartime Legislation:
Renegotiation of government war contracts 193–206
State alien registration act held to conflict with federal legislative powers 40–45

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION
Theory and Constitutionality:
Arguments of counsel defending constitutionality of workmen's compensation acts 391–94
The Jensen doctrine 339–44